Subject: Dimock Travel Today

It looks like we need to be up there today. I have a 10 am meeting and should have more concrete info for you after that but please start planning logistics in terms of transportation/hotel arrangements. Delma can amend your TAs next week.

Dave---Rich F. is already up there so please touch base with him to see what he may be thinking for today. You may want to start the process of knocking on doors tonight to set up appointments for tomorrow/Friday/next week.
